

Living History at Wheatland

First Saturday of Each Month: March 2016-October 2016

Sponsorship Deadline: January 31, 2016

The Living History at Wheatland program consists of a series of interactive and engaging glimpses into the life and times of President James Buchanan and his family. Actors bring to life the people who lived at Wheatland and the history of the site. Past Living History topics have covered: Harriet Lane: Democratic Queen, Seen but not Heard: The Life of a Victorian Child, Life Below Stairs: The Servant's Tour, and The War Years at Wheatland. Our fantastic actors for Living Histories are our devoted volunteers, ranging in age from 8 years old to 70+.

The 2016 Living History season kicks off on President's Day 2016 and continues on the first Saturday of each month until October.
