Discover the Benefits of Membership!

On the Campus of History you will learn about Lancaster—one of America's oldest cities, founded in 1730—and the unfolding of nearly 300 hundred years of remarkable history. From stories of the Conestoga Indians and the Underground Railroad to the political legacy of James Buchanan and Thaddeus Stevens to the stories of your own family, Lancaster's history has something to offer every visitor to the Campus of History!

LancasterHistory.org exists to engage and educate the public about the people, places, and events that shaped Lancaster County within the context of the history of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the United States of America. We collect, preserve, exhibit, and make accessible materials chronicling Lancaster County's complex and illuminating past.
